I can fill you in on my conversation with Jack. He is going to get back to me after connecting with his management, but he is good with a states face-to-face, although we both recognize that Oct. 31/Nov 1 may be too soon to pull it off.

thanks

Hi Kathy –

It sounds like Jack B. just spoke with Mindy, and – given the change of plans vis a vis consultant-audience (ECOS, secondarily ACWA and ASWM members), scope and intent of this exercise – Andrea Barbary would be the person with whom you should coordinate on this. At some point, you may want to touch base with Rachel Fertik-Edgerton, Dolores Wesson, Lauren Kasperek, and any others on your end who may be operating under the impression that a “Big 10 plus media groups” consultation (non-E.O. 13132) is being planned for Nov. That said, I would encourage your management to use the Oct. 10 Quarterly OCIR Meeting solicit feedback and carefully assess intergov association interest in moving forward with a pre-proposal consult on this as originally planned. Thanks.

Would you be so kind as to circle back with me at your earliest convenience to discuss?

Thank you,

Hi Lauren and Dolores -

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

We can talk about the date by which post-meeting input/comments should be submitted via the “docket/portal” address you set up. Just be aware that the shorter the “comment period” is, the more blowback we invite. As you know, these associations have to get their pre-proposal comments/input approved by their chains of command and, in some cases, environment committees. Again, we’ll plan to send the final version out as an attachment to an electronic scheduler no later than October 15.

Thanks,

AH

I've attached a very rough draft of our letter – this is subject to change because we just sent it up for mgmt. to review.

Who would you like us to work with while you're out?

Hope you're doing well!

Best,
Lauren

Sounds good, Lauren. If you can forward even a VERY rough draft by Monday or thereabouts, that'd be great. (I'll be out from next Thursday the 4th until Monday the 15th). If Jack wants to send the invitation (scheduler with the letter attached) out week after next, that's fine, but it should absolutely go no later than Monday the 15th. (which still gives them 2.5 weeks' notice) Remember, it needn't be signed at a high level. (Div. Director is ok, as far as we're concerned, but we'll defer to you)

Hope all's well.

Subject: state face to face

Hi Andrew,

Just wanted to give you a heads up that it looks like Thursday, November 1st will be the date for the state engagement on 404g – that was the date that worked best for Dave Ross.

We're currently drafting the consultation letter and aiming to have it ready for next week.

Thanks!
Lauren
